We recently said farewell to Childcare Practice Leader Louise Buchanan who is moving on to become a Deputy Manager within an Afterschool setting. Louise was a valued member of the Greenway Staff Team for four and a half years and we would like to wish her all the best for the future.

A huge thank you to everyone who braved the freezing weather to take part in the litter-pick around Greenway last month. This Turn Up & Try event was organised by Volunteer Now in partnership with Keep Northern Ireland Beautiful.

International Women's Day Coffee Morning

This year the celebrations for International Women's Day will follow the theme "Peace, Solidarity and Sustenance" – Keeping body and soul together.

As part of the celebrations, Greenway will be hosting a Coffee Morning on Friday 24 February, between 10.30am and 12.30pm.

Everyone welcome!

International Women's Day

This year the International Women's Day rally will take place on Saturday 4 March 2017, There will be a march from Writers Square at 11.30am followed by speeches at City Hall at 12noon.

If you would like to receive the Greenway newsletter by email each month, please contact newsletter@greenwaywomenscentre.org to be added to our mailing list.

Could you be a Greenway Volunteer?

Not only is volunteering an excellent way to meet new people and develop new skills, it can also help build confidence and self esteem.

All volunteers must be successfully vetted through Access NI before they can commence their role.

All volunteers in the Childcare Department must also be successfully vetted through Health & Social Services before they can commence their role.

Full training is provided prior to commencing any volunteering role.

If you are free on Fridays and are interested in volunteering at Greenway Women's Centre, please contact Julieanne Thompson or Liz Oslon on 9079 9912.
